A survey of the history of architecture from the eighteenth-century Enlightenment to the present, the course investigates architectural practice, style and technology within the framework of cultural history while concentrating on the social and philosophical functioning of architect and architecture.

Schedule:

Sessions I & II: 07.10 and 14.10.2002
1. Introduction to the Course
2. Architecture of the European Enlightenment

Sessions III & IV: 21.10 and 04.11.2002
1. Architecture of the European Enlightenment (cont.)
2. 19th-Century Classicism and Renaissance Revival

(28.10.2002  Cumhuriyet Bayramı)

Session V & VI: 11.11 and 18.11.2002
1. The Industrial Revolution; the Rise of Civic Engineering
2. Colonies and Orientalism. The Commercial Building, the Train Station, the Hotel, and Law Offices
3. State and Architecture: Government Buildings; Museums; Memorials
4. Paris

Midterm Examination: 25.11.2002 (may be moved to a Saturday in case of need for extra session)

Session VII: 02.12.2002
Itinerant session tracing the nineteenth-century in İzmir (date may be changed to a more convenient one)

Sessions IX & X: 09.12 and 16.12.2002
1. Modern Architecture and Avant-Garde Movements of the Early Twentieth Century
2. Late Modern and High-Tech Architecture

Sessions XI & XII: 23.12 and 30.12.2002
1. The Post-Modern Condition
2. Post-Modern Architecture and Architectural Criticism

Session XIII: 06.01.2002
1. Continuation of the above

Assessment:
- Midterm Examination: 40%
- Final Examination : 40%
- Attendance : 20%